

THE KATZIES

Bryan Downey

New Contender

Test Lewis, who holds the American welterweight championship at the present time through his recent defeat of Jack Britton, will have to look to his laurels as there is another young welterweight on his trail. The latest contender in that line is Bryan Downey of Columbus, Ohio. This boy has been coming along the past two years starting out as a featherweight; graduating into the lightweight and now the welterweight class. He had a chance to show his real speed on the Fourth of July when he met Eddie Mohr, the Milwaukee contender for the welterweight title, in a ten round match at Racine, Wis. Mohr was considered one of the best, but Downey's work was superior to the Milwaukee boy's.

Francis Ouimet

In Golf Finals

Chicago, Ill., July 14.—By virtue of spectacular golf, Francis Ouimet of Boston, former national amateur and open champion, and Kenneth Edwards of Chicago, will meet Saturday in the 36-hole final contest for the western amateur golf championship at Midlothian. Ouimet today defeated Donald Edwards, medalist of the tournament, four up and two to play, after Edwards had made a thrilling bid for victory with a record of 33 strokes for the third nine, three under par. Edwards had had an earlier conquest in defeating John G. Anderson of New York, twice runner up in the national championship, winning five up and four, but he shot close to par to overcome the stubborn easterner.

COAST LEAGUE ON THIN ICE

Vernon and Portland Clubs Are Said To Be Slipping and Cannot Remain.

San Francisco, Calif., July 14.—While baseball followers on the Pacific coast believe that the local league will be able to continue its schedule to the close of the present season, the fate of a number of the lesser organizations of like character throughout the country makes the future uncertain. It is known that the Portland club has been having a hard time to make both ends meet due to a combination of bad weather and indifferent attendance. Vernon also is said to be slipping along on thin ice.

Under the circumstances it would not come as a surprise if the announcement were made any day that the circuit between the two weather and the games for the remainder of the season played in some other town than the two mentioned. Because of the interest which attaches to teams well up in the percentage column and which have a chance to be in at the finish for the honors, the San Francisco and Salt Lake teams, which stand first and second respectively, have faced better than the majority of the clubs in the league.

Just what either would do in the event that a shift was made is problematical. Sacramento, one of the possibilities, but the fact that it was unable to support a club in the past would make the league of Pacific look for some compensation that the transfer would not involve them in any additional financial loss.

LEHIGH COLLEGE TAKES VICTORY

Students Awarded Championship of East After Winning Games.

South Bethlehem, Pa., July 14.—The batting and fielding records of the Lehigh university baseball team made public today, reinforce the judgment of eastern sporting writers in naming Lehigh as the 1917 eastern collegiate champions. The team's batting average for the season of 27 games is .312. All but three of the Lehigh regulars batted above .300, a record that is exceptional for college teams.

Captain Twombly headed his team with 16 stolen bases. Hurley had the best record among the pitchers, holding opposing teams to the low batting average of .167, without a single defeat.

Lehigh attained highest laurels by defeating Holy Cross, leader in New England, 5 to 2, in 16 innings, and overwhelming the University of Virginia, 10 to 0, in 10 innings.

Other strong teams which Lehigh beat were the University of Pennsylvania, 10 to 4; Pennsylvania State, 10 to 4; Williams college, Cornell, 10 to 0; Washington and Lee, 10 to 0; and Lehigh, 10 to 0.

AGED CALIFORNIA PLAYER

Turns in Record Mark

That age is no bar to participation in golf again has been demonstrated when C. S. Archer of Glendale, California, an 80 year old veteran of the game, turned in the best card for the first day of a play in a Red Cross tournament held at the municipal links at Los Angeles recently. Archer is a constant player and is one of the familiar figures on the links. Furthermore he is rated as among the best two players in the city who make use of the course. He usually plays nine holes, but during the tournament had no difficulty in negotiating the full 18 holes.

Perfection

has been the aim of the efficiency experts of the Ford Motor company in the matter of real service to all owners of Ford Cars. Every Ford agent is required to carry a complete stock of Ford parts and to maintain a service station in charge of experts trained in the Ford plant and equipped with the special tools of the Ford experts. That's why is unequalled in the motor car world. You can buy Ford parts in every important city or town in America; trained experts are always within easy reach to repair any trouble with your car. Just as this service is given after a car is sold, so is real service built into the car at the factory. That is one reason why the Ford car is the universal car—the car of the poor man as well as that of the man of wealth.

We have a few Fords for the coming week. We look for an increase in price when the annual Ford announcement is made August 1. Take our tip and get your Ford now.
